

Space Bandits

- A Review by Katia O'Brien

Our class were lucky enough to get this comic before the publisher released it to the rest of the public. It will be released on Wednesday 3rd July 2019. It is written by Mark Millar and illustrated by Matteo Scalera.

Space Bandits is about two women, one is in a space gang and the other one is the Galaxy's most wanted criminal, who want revenge on the men who betrayed them to the law.

Mark Millar and Matteo Scalera wrote and drew Space Bandits. Mark Millar has also written The Ultimates and Superman: Red Son.

Matteo Scalera art work is amazing. It is similar to Ian Gibson and Cam Kennedy and he creates a futuristic setting I'd love to visit. Marcelo Maielo uses eye popping colours to lure the readers in.

In my opinion I give:

10/10 for art.

5/10 for the lettering because it's so small!

10/10 for the story.
