

We invited our parents, carers, grandparents and other special people in to school to help us celebrate our topic.

After a moment of quiet reflection, prayer and celebration, we then made and decorated cakes, biscuits and gingerbread men to raise money for Macmillan cancer care.

